

How Not to Handle the Word of God

James 1:19-27

James identifies some obvious instructions and warnings about _____ to hearing God's Word in James 1:19-27.

First, we must _____. When God is speaking to His people, there should be a _____ about you to be present and ready to hear.

To hear means to perceive; to hear with _____. Sometimes we _____ God's own Spirit who is gently communicating the Word to our spirit. G. B. Duncan once observed, "God still comes where he can find someone _____ enough to listen."

Additionally, _____ hinders our ability to hear God's Word with understanding. Anger dulls the voice of God, in part because "human anger doesn't produce the _____ God desires."

Hearing the Word is hindered by the _____ of the world. God doesn't want to serve a meal of His Word on a _____.

Another hinderance to hearing the word with understanding is a lack of _____. Believers may come to think there is not much _____ and _____ left to do.

In vs. 22, James finally comes to the one hinderance he spends the most time addressing. Failure to _____ the Word you do hear is like _____. Our lives change for the better and we experience God's blessedness when we read the _____ of the Word and follow its _____.

James saw a problem in Christianity: believers content with having the _____ of religion. Appearing religious, we may deceive others, or we may deceive ourselves into thinking we are _____. But we don't control our _____. We don't care for the _____ among us. We don't avoid the _____ practices of the world. Hearing without doing is _____ before God.

What good have you heard God say that you should do but _____ done? Let's not merely _____ to the Word we have heard and so deceive ourselves. Let us _____ what it says.
