"We will love God and one another, reach people for Christ, and encourage growth in Christ-likeness."

Strength and dignity
are her clothing,
and she laughs at the time to come.
She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

Sermon Notes

The Currency of the Kingdom

Acts 4:23-32

That same spirit of faithfulness—that same _____—that Christian mothers often exhibit was expressed in a small room in Jerusalem when the Apostles _____ after they were arrested and threatened for preaching.

This prayer informs believers about what our prayers should include given the _____ of the mission Jesus gave us. First, the Apostles went straight back to “their own people.” For those early believers, prayer wasn’t a _____ habit. It was a _____ reflex. Spiritual resilience is built in community. When the world _____, the church _____ to call on God.

Second, this prayer began with God’s _____, not their _____. Before those believers asked for anything, they spent time acknowledging that God is still _____ despite their circumstances and their feelings. Our prayers should remind us to _____ the next chapter of God’s story.

The main lesson we can learn about praying is found in vs. 29. They didn’t pray for a way _____ but for a way _____ to victory. God is assembling the army of God, ready to _____ the enemy, go into every corner of the world and _____.

God isn’t interested in lessening our _____. He is interested in increasing our _____. Faith, according to 1 John, is the victory that overcomes the world. Peter wrote that trials come to prove your faith which is of greater worth than gold. The currency of the kingdom of God is _____; faith to live for Him _____ and speak His word _____.

Let God’s word challenge us to change our “safety” prayers into “_____” prayers; our “comfort” prayers into “_____” prayers; our “bed of roses” prayers into “_____” prayers; our “fix things” prayers into “_____” prayers. Let’s see if God won’t shake us loose from our comfort zones and fill us with His Spirit, ready and prepared to share the gospel _____ for Him.
