

So, You Want a Miracle
John 10:22-26 & 14:8-14

Is the fact that God _____ miraculously answer every prayer we pray proof that the Christian faith is a _____?

In John 14, Jesus promised that His followers would do _____ works than He did, and that if we pray in His name, Jesus will do it. The _____ will help us understand this promise.

At this point Jesus' miraculous ministry and amazing teachings were well-known in _____ even though most of His ministry had been in _____. In John 10, we see that, despite all these miracles, most people in Jerusalem still demanded _____ to convince them. Then, in John 14, we learn that His own _____ struggled to believe He was who He said He was.

What should we take from this promise of doing greater works and of having our prayers answered? Another question will provide an answer: "Why do we _____ to promises like this and _____ others like, "Everyone who desires to live godly in Christ Jesus will _____ persecution," or "My grace is sufficient for you for my power is made perfect in _____?"

Because we mostly desire miracles to _____ persecution or suffering or weakness. But Jesus said that our prayers will be answered when we pray in Jesus' name, as His _____, so, for things that benefit Him, His _____, and _____ in the world.

The 2nd reason we pray for God to do the miraculous is to _____ that Jesus is who He said He is. But this text says that people still didn't believe despite obvious _____.

A miraculous answer to prayer may help confirm faith that _____, but it will rarely produce faith that _____.

So, what are the "greater works" Jesus promised we would do?

The greatest miracle is that, by faith in Christ, people who begin as hopelessly lost _____ can be gradually and completely _____ into the _____. There's your miracle!
