Message Notes

Doing It His Way

2 Kings 5:1-3 & 10-17

Our innate human desire to _____ often hinders us from experiencing the good things God wants to do in us and for us. Such was the case with a man named Naaman in 2 Kings 5. Naaman's story is a perfect picture of how the innate desire to rule often causes us to miss out on God's _____ and _____ in our lives.

He heard about the prophet but went to the _____ for healing. Then, he was angry that Elisha didn't bother to come and heal him in person with some _____ of miraculous power fitting for a man of his stature. And he didn't like that he was instructed _____.

Like Naaman, some people want to rule by choosing the _____ through whom God sends help. The Bible is abundantly clear that, since the coming of Christ, God's help for us comes through a relationship with His Son, _____. Like Elisha was for Naaman, Jesus is for us. He is the one and only _____ of the Father's love and power and grace.

Also, people want it their way when it comes to the _____ we receive salvation and God's work in our lives. Whatever help you require of the Lord, the one requirement is to _____ and _____. When we do that, God, in His way by His grace and according to His great love for you will do exactly what is _____ and _____ for you.

Naaman ultimately did things God's way and was healed. His final act of taking soil for an altar to worship God showed this was a _____. Now God Ruled. It would now be _____.

Elisabeth Elliot was right: One does not surrender a life in an _____. That which is lifelong can only be surrendered in a _____.

God's help comes when we make Jesus _____ of our lives and do it His way _____. _____ His way. _____ for daily living His way.
