

Chosen by Our Faithful God
Deuteronomy 7:6-16

In our world, the 'chosen' are usually the strongest, the _____, or the most _____. But when we turn to Deuteronomy 7, we find God chooses because He decides to _____. He chooses people because of His _____.

Before entering the Promised Land, Moses reminded a new generation of Israelites that they were the _____ of God because God had chosen Abraham and his future offspring. Now _____ were chosen because of God's faithfulness to _____.

The New Testament, mirroring the language of the Old, says that _____ of _____ are chosen too. 1 Peter 2:9 says, "You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession,..." Like Israel in the OT, if you are a follower of Christ, Eph. 1:4 says, "He chose us in him before the creation of the world." He chose us _____. The Bible says, God chose Christ before the creation of the world and if we are "in Christ," we are chosen in Him. And God remains faithful to His choice. 2 Timothy 2:13 says, "if we are _____, he remains _____, for he cannot disown himself."

But Deut. 7:12 seems to say that God's faithfulness is _____. Reading the whole Bible is so important. Romans 3:10 and 3:20 affirm that the law is _____ for us to fulfill completely. Reading it, we become aware that we aren't able to fulfill it. But Jesus came to _____ for us perfectly the very law we are unable to fulfill for ourselves. Because of God's choice of Jesus, and because you are "in Him," He remains faithful to us.

To be chosen by God is to become part of the people called holy to the Lord. None of us _____ to be a part. We haven't _____ it. We haven't _____ the dues. We just showed up at the _____ of the _____, and in faithfulness to His _____, Jesus, God chose us in Christ to be on the most prized team of all—a people holy to the Lord.
