

What Is That in Your Hand?

Acts 3:1-10

“What is that in your hand?” is the question we must answer when we consider our role in the _____ God has given us. This awe-inspiring moment in Acts 3:1-10 happened because Peter knew what he had in his hand. And _____ what he had.

Luke records a significant detail in verse 7. He specified “the _____ hand.” The right hand in Scripture is a _____, and in this text it indicates what _____ as we go out in the world and encounter opportunities to serve the Lord and proclaim His kingdom.

Extending the right hand signifies _____ and recognition of _____. Among the things this disabled beggar needed was to be noticed and recognized as valuable. As a Christ follower, you have in your hand what Peter had: the indelible _____ of the truth that every person bears the _____ of God and is _____ by Him—the same truth that caused our Lord to bear the imprint of the _____.

In the Bible, the majority of mentions of the right hand refer to _____ right hand. In almost every case, His right hand represented the _____ of God. The Bible depicts the power of God in God’s right hand, not _____. But in Scripture, a person’s right hand did symbolize the passing on of God’s _____. It served as a _____ point for the power of God to bring about the blessing for person upon whom the right hand was placed.

Most every day, many times a day, God presents you with the _____ to be the _____ that lets the miracle of God’s _____ cross over into someone else’s life.

Peter’s gesture shows us what all Christians have: the _____ of the _____ that God cherishes all people and we have the ability to _____ God’s _____ to others. But for that to matter, we have to _____ when opportunities arise.

God’s _____ often awaits your _____.